

Draft Bylaws Overview

General

General bylaws refer to matters that do not belong in any other specific section in the document and apply to the organization overall.

Under the new HPOA bylaws related to general matters:

- CHCPBC has the authority to establish special fees and additional administrative fees.
- Penalty, hearing cost, investigation expenses and late payment fee are subject to interest at the rate of 12% per annum.
- Manner of payment includes certified cheque and credit card.
